SPEAKER / AUTHOR / SERVANT LEADER

Jason R. Trudell

Ministry leader. Youth advocate.
Nonprofit leader and communicator.

Faith that serves.
Leadership that follows through.

A PRACTICAL PERSPECTIVE ON FAITH, SERVICE, AND PURPOSE

Jason R. Trudell is a Christian ministry and nonprofit leader, educator, youth advocate, author, and retired U.S. Army captain based in Summerville, South Carolina. His experience includes humanitarian ministry in Ukraine, teaching and mentorship, and co-founding Vet Nation. He speaks about faith, leadership, community, and purpose through change.

CONVERSATIONS FOR YOUR COMMUNITY

When the Uniform Comes Off - Identity, faith, and purpose through a major life transition.

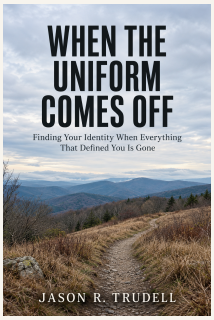

The Next Generation Needs Us Present - Listening, character, belonging, and dependable adult leadership.

Faith That Serves - Discipleship and practical service for churches and ministry teams.

Leading When the Plan Changes - Clear priorities, responsibility, and follow-through for mission-driven teams.

Build Community That Follows Through - Welcome, connection, and sustained relationships in communities of service.

Talks, facilitated discussions, and workshops are shaped with the host.

WHEN THE UNIFORM COMES OFF

Finding Your Identity When Everything That Defined You Is Gone

A Christian memoir exploring identity, faith, service, and beginning again.

View the book on Amazon

Speaking and interview inquiries | jasontrudell.com
jasontrudell@gmail.com | Summerville, South Carolina